

GENERAL INFORMATION

This form can only be used to register a change of name for a child whose birth is registered in the ACT, or who is currently a resident of the ACT. The Registrar-General will not register a change of name unless satisfied of the identity and age of the person whose name is to be changed and that the change is not sought for a fraudulent or other improper purpose. Under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997, certain restricted people require approval from the Director-General of Justice and Community Safety in order to apply for a change of name. A restricted person is one who is serving a sentence of imprisonment including periodic detention or is the subject of a parole order.

If the application to register a change of name is approved, an entry will be created in the change of name register. If the child was born in the ACT, the new name will also be noted on their birth registration and will appear on all birth certificates issued after registration of the change of name. You must select if you want the new name noted on the front or the back of the birth certificate. If the child was born in another State or Territory within Australia, the Registrar-General of that jurisdiction will be notified of the change of name and it may appear on birth certificates subsequently issued by that jurisdiction.

PARENTAL CONSENT AND CONSENT FROM A CHILD OVER 14 YEARS OF AGE

If the child's birth registration includes details of two parents, both parents must apply and consent to the registration of the change of name.

One parent may apply if they are the only parent on the child's birth registration; or if one parent is the only person with parental responsibility for decisions about the child's name until they are 18 years old; or one parent is deceased. If either parent cannot be found or refuses to consent to the application to change the child's name, a Court Order approving the proposed change is required.

CONSENT FROM A CHILD OVER 14 YEARS OF AGE

If the child has attained the age of 14 years, the child must also consent to the application to change their name.

PRIVACY INFORMATION

The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 authorises the Registrar-General to collect the information required by this form. The Registrar-General prevents any unreasonable intrusion into a person's privacy in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2014. The Registrar-General may provide identifiable information to law enforcement organisations and authorised organisations that have legal authority to request information under prescribed circumstances. Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through the National Document Verification System (DVS). Documents issued by this office may also be verified by external agencies using DVS.

REFERRAL TO THE AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE (AFP) AND OTHER AGENCIES AND CONSENT TO RELEASE INFORMATION

This form may be directed to the AFP and other agencies including (but not limited to) other Birth, Death and Marriage Registries, the Passports Office, Department of Immigration and Citizenship, and Motor Vehicle Registries. Usually these referrals are simply to verify the evidence that you have provided in making your application. If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency prior to being able to register the change of name application. It is extremely important that all identity documents are accurate and reflect the correct identity information. In all cases it is necessary for you to consent for the Registrar-General to require the AFP or other agencies to release information available to them that may assist the Registrar-General in making his/her decision. As a result, as you complete this form it is assumed that you are consenting to the release of information by these agencies in support of your application. Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through the National Document Verification System (DVS). Documents issued by this office may also be verified by external agencies using DVS.

REASONS YOUR APPLICATION MAY BE REJECTED

The Registrar-General may refuse to register your change of name application if you;

- | | |
|---|---|
| • Have previously offended; | • Have outstanding debts; |
| • Have significant association with an offender; | • Desired name is a prohibited name; |
| • Are unable to produce the required proof of identity documents; | • A registered change of name has been performed in the last 12 months; |
| • Have failed to advise of previous changes of name in the ACT or other jurisdiction; | • Have failed to prove ACT residency |
| • Are currently involved in an investigation; | |

If you are able to demonstrate that the information used by the Registrar-General as part of the decision-making process has been superseded, then the change of name application can be reviewed.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

- If completing this form by hand, please use a solid black pen only.
- If born in the ACT, please ensure you select whether you want the change to replace the existing name on the front of the birth certificate or noted on the back of the birth certificate
- This office will not accept lodgement of this form if it is not completed in full.

PROOF OF IDENTITY, RESIDENCY AND OTHER DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED (INCLUDE COPIES WITH YOUR APPLICATION)

Upon application, you will need to provide sufficient evidence to allow the Registrar-General to be satisfied of the child's identity. This includes, but is not limited, to the following:

- If your child was born in the ACT – the child's birth certificate and each parent must provide three forms of current identification with at least one Primary Proof of Identity and proof of residency in the ACT.
- If child was not born in the ACT - the child's birth certificate and each parent must provide three forms of current identification with at least one being Primary Proof of Identity and proof of residency in the ACT.
- If you, as the parent, have previously changed your name through marriage, by registered deed poll or by registered change of name, we require evidence of those changes of name.

In cases where a person is unable to provide enough forms of identification, please contact this office
