

Guidance Notes – Annexure – Additional Signing Panel

These guidance notes are of a general nature and are not intended to, and cannot, replace the advice of a Legal Practitioner.

This form is to be used in support of another application requiring an additional signing panel.

This guidance note is to be read in conjunction with the Verification of Authority Guidelines and Verification of Identity Rules on the Access Canberra website.

All panels must be completed in full. If an annexure is required, use form ANN-Annexure. If more than one page is required in the annexure these pages shall be numbered consecutively and bound to this document by staples along the left margin.

All handwriting must be clear, legible and in black ink.

Any alteration to information provided on this form must be struck through with a black pen. Substitute information must be clear, and all parties must sign in the margin. Do not use correction fluid or tape.

The Registrar-General may refuse to accept any instrument that does not comply with the Land Titles Act 1925 or these notes.

PRIVACY NOTICE

The collection of personal information in this form is required by law under the Land Titles Act 1925, to ensure accurate and legal transfer of title or registration of other interests relating to land and for maintaining publicly searchable registers and indexes. Personal information collected on this form will be handled in accordance with the Territory Privacy Principles in Schedule 1 of the Information Privacy Act 2014. More detailed information about how Access Canberra handles this personal information is available at: <https://www.act.gov.au/acprivacy>

COMPLETION OF FORM

TITLE AND LAND DETAILS

Legal identifier of the land is to be supplied. To assist with suburb, section, and block, visit actmapi.act.gov.au.

CERTIFICATION

All parties must execute the document under certification.

Certification statements (dot points) must be made by the certifier, being one of the following:

- a. A legal practitioner
- b. If the applicant is not represented by a legal practitioner – the applicant (i.e. self- represented party)

c. If a party to an instrument is not represented by a legal practitioner – that party (i.e. self-represented party)

Any inapplicable certification statement(s) must be deleted.

All certification statements apply where the certifier is a legal practitioner.

By certifying this form, the legal practitioner acknowledges they have taken reasonable steps to verify that their client or his, her or its administrator or attorney is a legal person and has the right to enter the conveyancing transaction.

The first two listed certification statements do not apply where the Certifier is a self-represented party. Self-represented parties are only required to make certifications relating to retaining evidence to support the registry instrument or document and ensuring the registry instrument or document is correct and compliant with relevant legislation and any prescribed requirement.

A self-represented party must have their identity verified and certified by an Identity Agent, Justice of the Peace, Legal Practitioner, or Notary Public and provide evidence to be able to transact on the land as outlined in the self-represented party pack found here. Self-represented parties must sign in the certification panel and have that signature witnessed by the authorised person completing the verification of or by an adult over the age of 18 who is not a party to this document. A completed self-represented party pack is to accompany the application at time of lodgment.

Note: - An attorney, body corporate or a corporation cannot make certification statements. They are required to complete the form as a self-represented party.

EVIDENCE TO BE LODGED FOR SELF-REPRESENTED

If you are a self-represented party, satisfactory evidence is to accompany this application. Evidence may include but not limited to:

- A completed Self-represented party pack including identity certification, documents used to verify identity, and documents linking the applicant to be able to deal on the property; and
- Annexures or attachments supporting the lodgment.

EVIDENCE TO BE RETAINED BY LEGAL PRACTITIONERS AND MORTGAGEE CORPORATIONS

Any evidence to support verification of identity carried out by a legal practitioner or mortgagee corporations, must be retained:

- (a) by the Legal Practitioner for at least 7 years from the date of lodgment of the Registry Instrument in the Land Titles Office;
- (b) by the mortgagee until they cease to be mortgagee in respect of the mortgage.

Evidence is required to be retained in order to demonstrate that the transaction was completed in accordance with legislative and other requirements and the certifications required were accurately made. Evidence may be required to be provided to the Registrar-General for the purpose of monitoring compliance with legislative and other requirements. The evidence must be legible, stored safely and securely, and accessible and may include:

- Client Authorisation
- Verification of identity
- Right to deal
- Other Prescribed Requirements; and
- Any evidence required by the Duty Authority.
