The committee members are held accountable for ensuring that the association operates in compliance with applicable laws including the Act and the Associations Incorporation Regulation 1991 (the Regulation).
- The public officer is responsible for acting as a point of contact between the association and the community and is expected to be able to represent the association in dealings with Access Canberra.
- The Act prohibits any person from serving as a committee member or the public officer if that person is bankrupt or personally insolvent, without leave from the ACT Supreme Court under S 63 of the Act. A search should be conducted of the records held by the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) at www.afsa.gov.au before accepting the nomination of a person as a committee member.
- If the association, the public officer or a committee member fails to meet their statutory obligations under the Act (such as failure to lodge annual returns), the Registrar-General may make an application to the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (ACAT) for the disqualification of the office-holder. The disqualification will be for a period the ACAT considers appropriate if satisfied that the extent of noncompliance justifies disqualification.
